

Saturday Sampler 2024

Message from Carrie – July 31, 2024

It's Saturday Sampler time! Happy August! I hope you are all having a wonderful summer. I feel like mine has just begun! We have our last weekend of baseball this weekend and we get a few weeks off before football starts. All of the graduation fun is over and now we are prepping for school to start in September. We are headed across the mountains for a few days and then back home to hang out for another few days. A perfect break before it's time to get ready for fall.

There are some really fun classes coming up in August and September. I am teaching Scrap Petal Garden (Aug. 15), and a Raw Edge Appliqué Quilt. We have a Gamer Ball Plush (Aug. 31), a Crossbody Bag (Aug. 11), a beautiful Quiltworx class (Sept. 5,6), National Sew a Jelly Roll Day, Beginning Quilting and I am going to try to pop a Mystery Quilt in there too! Our full class calendar is here. I have some fun ideas for classes coming up, but always want to hear what you are interested in learning. Email me: quilterscorner@bfranklincrafts.com or pop in the store if you have suggestions.

The blocks for the Bridal Path quilt this month are fun! We are making the houses and they go pretty fast. The Urban Owl Quilt Block is the beautiful paper pieced star. It's gorgeous and fun to do. If you need any help with either quilt, our Tuesday Sew, Late Night Sew and Finish It Workshop are there for you. We always have a great time.

If you are doing following along with the UFO challenge the number for August is 9. I hope it's a fun one! I am really trying to get some of my old projects completed but there are so many new projects to start! I can't catch up.

I hope you have a great rest of your summer!

Please post in the Quilter's Corner Facebook Group. We would love to see what you're up to!

Love ya, Carrie
