

Saturday Sampler 2024

Message from Carrie – June 27, 2024

Hi everyone! It's almost July!

Thanks for being flexible with your schedule this month! I hope everyone had a good few weeks. Did you Shop Hop? It is over Sunday the 30th, get out there and hop, there's still time!

We have a pre-holiday coupon valid from this Sat. June 29 thru Wed. July 3. Get $10 off your total purchase of $40 or more (regular priced items only). Coupon is here.

There are some really great classes coming up this month: Chinese Lattice with Carin, Christmas Baubles with Connie, a beautiful cape for Ren Faire with Sandra, and an English Paper Piecing intro class with me. Here is our full calendar here.

Well, things are calming down at my house. School is out and Gracie graduated, whew! It was a whirlwind. I am so excited to get back to normal. I haven't been able to work on my projects for so long. It's time to reorganize and get to work. I can't wait to concentrate on some stash busting projects. I have a few ideas and hopefully will be able to show you my progress next month.

Bridle Path friends, we are working on the four patch log cabin blocks. They were fun to do and pretty quick. Urban Owls friends, we are working on the New York Beauties. I had so much fun and am so in love with paper piecing. If you need some extra help, consider coming to Late Night Sew or Finish It Workshop this month. I can help you with the paper piecing process.

Thanks for hanging out with us twice this month!

Please post in the Quilter's Corner Facebook Group. We would love to see what you're up to!

Love ya, Carrie
