

Saturday Sampler 2024

Message from Carrie – June 24

Hi Friends!

I can't believe that June is here! It's bittersweet for me this year. I am so excited that Mitch's first year of high school is over, we made it through! :) Gracie is graduating though and it is a lot to process for this Mom. So many of you have been cheering her on all these years and have been such a support to me. I can't say thank you enough! We made it! She is heading to UW next year so keep on cheering. I will need all of the good vibes in the fall. In addition to the end of the year school craziness, we are fully into baseball tournament season. I have a ton of nervous energy sitting watching baseball games so I always come prepared with projects to work on. Yes, I am the weird mom that is binding quilts, or english paper piecing, or knitting in the stands. I am used to the funny looks but have also been able to chat with other people watching that are quilters too! What projects do you take on the go? If you want some travel project ideas, let me know.

Bridle Path friends, we are finishing up the last of our 12 blocks this month. If you are already done, enjoy the vacation. If you need to catch up, this is the time.

Urban Owls friends, we are making the Queen of the May blocks. They are not easy, but look amazing when they are done. Check out the tutorial this month, I have tweaked her instructions a little bit. If you would prefer to do this block english paper pieced, that is an option too. If that's something that you are interested in, I can give you an EPP lesson at Late Night Sew on Sat. June 15 (You can register here. Only $15 to attend!).

June 1st is the beginning of the Row by Row Experience 2024, and the Western Washington Shop Hop starts June 17th. I love our blocks for each this year. I hope you will too! It's a great opportunity to explore shops while you are traveling this summer.

Just a reminder that the July Saturday Sampler class is moved to June 29th so we can avoid the 4th of July weekend. Enjoy your month everyone!

Take a look at our June flyer for fabric deals.

Don't forget to check out our class calendar for upcoming sewing classes!

Please post in the Quilter's Corner Facebook Group. We would love to see what you're up to!

Love ya, Carrie
